What is EURES?

EURES (European Employment Services) is a cooperation network established by the European Commission and the Public Employment Services of the member states of the European Union (EU), the EEA, and the Swiss Confederation.

The main goal is to facilitate the free movement of workers within the European Economic Area (EEA) and the Swiss Confederation by providing services such as information, counseling, and job matching for job seekers interested in relocating to another country for work. It also offers support activities for employers who wish to hire workers within the EEA and the Swiss Confederation.

In the Republic of Bulgaria, EURES is part of the Employment Agency.

What does EURES offer?

EURES supports employers by providing:

Posting job advertisements:

- On the EURES Bulgaria website:
<https://eures.bg>
- At the Local Labour Office through the announcement of job vacancies (JVs).

Consultations:

- For employers on issues related to hiring workers from the EU and EEA;
- For candidates from Bulgaria and abroad regarding the announced job vacancies.

Candidate selection:

- Collecting CVs and conducting a preliminary selection;
- Encouraging independent candidate searches through the EURES European Job Mobility Portal:
<https://eures.europa.eu>.

Information:

- Data on labor shortages or surpluses;
- Specialized information on labor mobility in the EU and EEA.

Events:

The opportunity to organize and participate in online job fairs and informational events through the European Job Days platform.

Contact EURES advisors through the national EURES Bulgaria website:
<https://eures.bg>.

Bulgarian employers can advertise job vacancies through the Local Labour Offices:

- Contact a labor mediator at the local registration office of your enterprise;
- If desired, the job advertisement can also be published on the national EURES Bulgaria website <https://eures.bg>, making it accessible to candidates from the EU, EEA, and the Swiss Confederation.
